Springfield, Illinois, September 14, 2007 – Jeff Jarrett is celebrating 20 years of service at Harold O’Shea Builders. Jeff began his career at O’Shea as an apprentice carpenter in 1987 and in 1991 he became a project superintendent coordinating, scheduling and maintaining the day to day operations for job-site projects. In 2003, Jeff moved into the office as a project manager, establishing and maintaining client relationship, preparing costs estimates, organizing and scheduling manpower, materials and sub-contractors.

Harold O’Shea Builders is central Illinois’ leading General Contractor, offering the entire spectrum of integrated project delivery systems including Design-Build, Construction Management and Pre-Construction planning.
